Experience

Feb 2025 - Present
Atlantic Publishers & Distributors (P) Ltd, Darya Ganj
Web Developer

I work as a Web Developer at Atlantic Publishers & Distributors, where I design and maintain scalable eCommerce platforms on Shopify. I developed the company's main website and a dedicated B2B trade portal to manage wholesale customer orders. I handle large product catalogs with millions of items and custom product properties, ensuring smooth daily operations. I build private Shopify apps for quotation generation, invoicing, and order processing. I also develop Python-based internal tools to support the operations team and integrate payment, shipping, and other third-party systems to streamline business workflows.

July 2022 - Nov 2024
Build with Innovation, Tilak Nagar
Web Developer

As a Shopify Developer, I designed, built, and maintained eCommerce websites, creating custom themes, optimizing store performance, integrating third-party apps or APIs, troubleshooting issues, implementing new features, ensuring responsive designs, focusing on user-friendly interfaces, collaborating with clients to meet business goals, providing technical support, staying updated on Shopify trends, improving conversion rates, streamlining workflows using Liquid, addressing cross-browser compatibility, enhancing accessibility, and delivering projects on time with precision.

May 2020 - July 2022
Swifty Web Agency, Tilak Nagar
Wordpress Shopify Developer

I worked as a Web Developer specializing in WordPress, creating websites from scratch, customizing themes and plugins, and managing content. My focus was on delivering seamless navigation, user-friendly interfaces, and optimizing performance across all devices, while prioritizing functionality and aesthetics.
